

OFFICE OF THE
WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE
OF THE
WORLD'S COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION.

RAND-MCNALLY BUILDING,

c Chicago, April 20th, 1893.

O. C. Bosbyshell, Esq.

Sup't of U.S. Mint, Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sir

I have to advise you of the adoption of the following resolution by the Ways and Means Committee at a session held on the 18th inst.

RESOLVED: That the Ways and Means Committee does hereby recommend that the resolution adopted on April 6th, 1893, recommending that a certain concession be awarded Mr. O. C. Bosbyshell for permission to sell commemorative medals stamped on a machine exhibited among the exhibits of the United States Mint at Philadelphia, in the Government Building, also the right to sell books descriptive of coins and metals used in the manufacture of same, be so altered as to provide that the Exposition shall receive 25 per cent of the Gross receipts derived from said sales, and further altered as to provide that the grantee shall not be required to furnish bond or make a cash deposit.

Very respectfully

Sam A. Crawford,
Secretary

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 181

Office of the Ways and Means Committee of the World's Columbian Exposition.
Chicago,
April 20, 1893

O.C. Bosbyshell, Esq.,
Sup't of U.S. Mint, Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sir

I have to advise you of the adoption of the following resolution by the Ways and Means Committee at a session held on the 18th inst.

RESOLVED: That the Ways and Means Committee does hereby recommend that the resolution adopted on April 6th, 1893, recommending that a certain concession be awarded Mr. O.C. Bosbyshell for permission to sell commemorative medals stamped on a machine exhibited among the exhibits of the United States Mint at Philadelphia, in the Government Building, also the right to sell books descriptive of coins and metals used in the manufacture of same, be so altered as to provide that the Exposition shall receive 25 per cent of the Gross receipts derived from said sales, and further altered as to provide that the grantee shall not be required to furnish bond or make a cash deposit.

Very Respectfully
Sam A. Crawford
Secretary